Meyers, if that is his real name, has worked on both sloes of the ocean. One of his ancient pais, Dave Algio, is now in a French prison. He has done time in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Hinois penitentiaries and he was tried three years ago in Cincinnati and acquitted of the charge of killing Poleeman Robert Moran while resisting arrest. Although the New York police had not heard of him lately, he appears to have been doing well somewhere. He had 70 in his pockets and a lot of trinkets. When McCafferty Insisted on knowing the names of his present co-workers he meresty saughed a languid laugh and cocked one foxy eyerow.

Lawler, the special man who captured him, had his baige taken away from him a few weeks ago by Deputy Police Commissioner Hanson because he wore a blue uniform.

The will be a work of years to remake Central Park, add it ought to be immenced at once. The cost of the work named will be in total about $675.00 and then there must be much done in lake cleaning and read makons. I believe it will cost a million to finish the job as I should be, but after it is once put in shape the cost of repairs will be slight compared to what they are when the park is run down and neglected.
